

WEB SITES OF INTEREST TO ESTATE LAWYERS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Definitions

The Web Sites:

Associations	Government	Newspapers and Publications
Business and Industry	Insurance	Non-Profit/Charity
Case Law Research	Investments	Search Engine
Continuing Legal Education	Legal Resources	Section 7520 Rate
Discount Brokers	Legislation	Software
Estate Planning	Libraries	Statutes
Forms	Listserv	Tax
Free Ware	Mailing Lists	Translators
General	Medical	Travel and Locators
	Mutual Fund Sites	Weather

DEFINITIONS

Bookmark (or Favorite Places) - A way for you, within the Web Browser, to mark a URL (web site) for easy future access

E-mail - electronic mail

Extensions

.com - usually trying to sell something

.edu - educational information (also includes school's home page where student achievements may be displayed).

.org - organization (such as a museum)

FTP (File Transfer Protocol) - A way to transfer files to another computer using the Internet.

HTML (Hypertext Markup Language) - coded graphics and text which allow displaying of Web page

Internet Interconnected network of computer networks located everywhere in the world. One must go

<http://www.cobar.org/sections/trustlaw/weblis.htm>

5/11/00

National Association of Financial and Estate Planning

www.nafep.com

estate planning forms.